

McLean County Jail

Anyone who suspects or has knowledge of any sexual harassment, sexual assault, or sexual misconduct should report it.

Anyone who receives a report of sexual abuse in any confinement setting must send it up the chain of command for investigation and disposition.

The McLean County Jail has a ZERO tolerance policy for any sexual assaults made or attempted by any inmate or staff member in a McLean County facility. Reports can be made anonymously by friends or family members at any time.

Nobody deserves to be a victim of sexual violence!
